Your 2015–2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need correcting. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may request additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

Child Support Paid

You reported on the FAFSA that someone in the household paid child support in 2014. List the names of the person(s) who received the child support, the names(s) of the child(ren) for whom the child support was paid, and the total amount of child support in 2014 for each child. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet that includes the student’s name and ID Number at the top with the same detailed information as required in the table below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Who Paid Child Support</th>
<th>Who Received the Child Support</th>
<th>Child for Whom the Support was Paid</th>
<th>Total Amount of Child Support Paid in 2014</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>John Doe (example)</td>
<td>Jane Doe (example)</td>
<td>Johnny Doe, Jr. (example)</td>
<td>$3,000 (example)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Note: If we have reason to believe the information you provided us with is not accurate, we may require additional information, such as:

- Documentation from the Child Support Enforcement Unit (CSEU)
- Copies of the child support payment checks, money order receipts or pay stubs with child support deductions
- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided.
